Foreword

We, the Annual Staff, wish to express our sincere hope that your 1960 edition of the Thunderbolt will serve as a treasure chest of pleasant memories for many years to come.

We want to extend our appreciation to all those who helped make our yearbook a success.

Dedication

Time after time during our quest for knowledge here we have entered the library with vained degrees of zeal. But to go was to learn; to meet and know our librarian has been a rich experience in life. For the kind assistance she has given, for the roses she has strewn in our pathway, and for the myriad acts and deeds which she has given so freely along the way, we the Senior Class of 1960, humbly dedicate our annual to our librarian - Mrs. Elaine Duty.

Principal's Message

Dear Seniors:

It has been a pleasure working with you this past year. You have now completed another phase of your education, and are ready to take another step forward. To be able to succeed in today's scientific world requires more and more education and I hope that you seniors will take advantage of the many opportunities that are available.

Success does not come easy and is only achieved by those who strive to be successful. To succeed you must select an attainable goal, plan carefully, and work hard.

Sincerely

C. C. Short, Principal

Class Prophecy

Well, folks, it is time for a late news report over radio station HAYSI 1960 on your dial which is owned and operated by Lewis O. with special technicians Bobby T., Roy Lee O., and Carolyn N.

Our home team, coached by Tony B., won its first basketball game last night. It was the first game played in the new gym which was designed and built by Gary and Norman G. Dr. Ronald S., and nurses Thelma W., Fannie A., and Juanita R. got their first patients last night. They were Donald F., Zane C., and Glen T. hospitalized after being caught in Rosa A's. chicken house.

Helen C., Patsy Y., Pat M., and Sharon M. just returned from France where they were visiting with Andra T. who owns the largest dress shop in Paris.

Bobby O., and Glen P. were locked up by Sheriff Johnny G. for throwing rocks into the window of the old maids' home and injuring Anna B., Ruby M., Joyce Y., Nina G., and Kaye V. He also got Kit K. for reckless driving.

Haskell A., President of the 2nd National Bank, said their business is better than ever before since Sandra A., Shirley R., and Trena V. started to work instead of taking so many coffee breaks.

Our Congressman, Roy Lee C., hired Mary F., and Linda O. for his secretaries. They will fill the places left vacant by Doris P. and Pat H. who left for Florida.

Monroe R., principal of H. H. S. said several new teachers were hired for next year. They are Sharon D., Clara M., Fern O., Barbara H., Bonnie W., Sue W., Jerry B., Sam H., and Edgar M.

Now a word from our sponsor, HONEST CHARLEY'S NEW AND USED CARS, owned and operated by Charles R. Be sure and stop by today and get one of his good used traps which are guaranteed to get you there faster (Boothill). So see the friendly salesmen Gaines B. or Tivis P. and if they are busy you may talk to his pretty secretary, Sandra S., until they can trade with you.

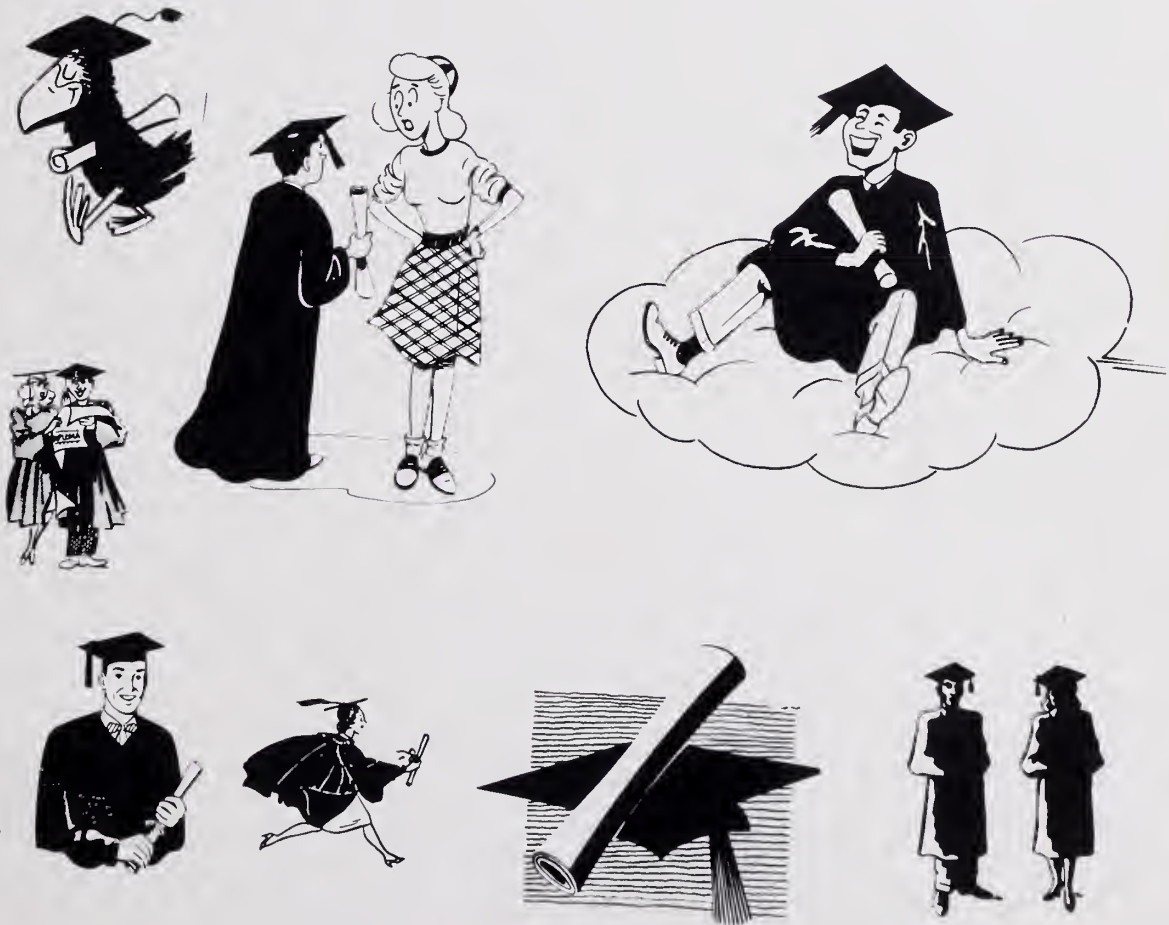

Morgan A. said his trucking company is enlarging. He had to hire five new office workers. They are Emma B., Wilhelmena B., Betty F., Nadine F., and Sally O. Three new drivers. Lester K., Jim T., and Robert B. were hired since Joyce R., and Jerlene F. have increased their chicken farm.

Bobby Y. said he sold a large order from his farm to Mac D. and Roger E. He said this was the largest order of corn he had ever sold.

Nancy F., Phyllis F., and Mary S. left for Alaska to visit Charlotte H. There they will study the melting of icebergs and make a formal report when they return.

Kilby E. and Norman B. were arrested when they tried to start Linda W's. car in the parking lot, but found out that their car was the same color. They were released later.

That's all the news for now so tune in tomorrow when our new sponsors, Patsy O. and Joan S. who own the Dress Shop, will present the news before it happens.
